

Art at the 109

CALL FOR ENTRY

Deadline: Oct. 22, 2021. Notification: Nov. 12

The 109 Cultural Exchange invites applications for a juried exhibition. Works that embrace the ethos of the 109 Cultural Exchange—diversity of culture, race, and ethnicity; promote openness; and that approaches social issues with a critical eye for dialog—are encouraged for submission.

Eligibility: Open to all residents and students in Washtenaw County, 18+. For individuals, or groups up to four people.

Media: Any wall-hung 2-D work will be considered, including but not limited to: painting, drawing, printmaking, fiber, mixed media, and photography.

Installation: The artist will be responsible for the installation and deinstallation of work. We ask the artist be mindful of the brick walls.

Sales: The 109 is not responsible for sales of artwork, and will communicate to the artist any interest from prospective buyers.

Insurance: Works will be insured from theft and damage during duration of exhibition.

Juror: John Anderson is an arts writer, artist, and curator. He has written for Washington City Paper, Sculpture, Art in America, and the Washington Post.

Exhibition Schedule

June 27—July 27
Aug 1—Aug 31
Sept. 19—Oct. 19
Nov 14—Dec. 14

About the 109

The 109 Cultural Exchange was founded in 2019, as a mixed-use space, which has provided homes to Saline Main Street, Salt Valley Arts, and The Saline Historical Society; hosted open mic nights, poetry slams, and art exhibitions; and has served as a special project meeting space for the Saline District Library, the Saline Art and Culture Committee, and other organizations.

Because the 109 Cultural Exchange is a mixed-use facility, images depicting violence, nudity, symbols of hate, or images of an overtly political nature (such as those that appear to campaign for or against a candidate), or works using vulgarity, may receive the request for substitution or be removed, by the juror, or by the board or staff of The 109, or Saline Main Street.

Hours: 12-4 PM Tues–Fri, by appointment, & during events.
